

→ Democracy in Burma

Democracy is the dream of peoples around the world. As young Burmese activists, Mi Aie Son and Aung Naing Soe will share their dreams for a fair & democratic Burma.

Mi Aie Son, a Mon ethnic works with the Mon Youth Progressive Organization (MYPO) an independent youth organization with the aim of supporting the struggle for democracy and human rights in Burma. MYPO has implemented capacity building training sessions for members, a women empowerment program for young women activists, awareness raising program on issues of land use and control, hydro electric dam awareness, rights based campaign for women, work on civil rights and issues quarterly bulletins.

Aung Naing Soe is an ethnic Arakan who is the General Secretary of Nationalities Youth Forum. Under his leadership, NY Forum has successfully implemented training sessions , workshops and internships for ethnic youth and women. He is also the Burma representative for Asia Pacific Youth Network, promoting the collaboration of young activists throughout the region.

→ PUBLIC MEETINGS:

Ottawa, October 25
6:30 p.m.
Main branch of the
Ottawa public Library
120 Metcalfe Street

Toronto, October 26
6:30 p.m.
Ryerson University, Jorgenson Hall
Centre Hub (POD 152)
350 Victoria Street

Vancouver, October 30
2:00 p.m.
CUSO-VSO
1460 Howe Street

Light refreshments will be served.

Organized by

