Support Local 1281's stand against two-tiered contracts!

At Ryerson University in Toronto, two members of CUPE Local 1281 were locked out September 30 by their employer, the Continuing Education Students' Association of Ryerson (CESAR). The employer has demanded massive concessions including a 10 percent cut to wages of future employees, making this an important fight against two-tiered contracts.

Support our sisters in Local 1281 and send a strong message to governments and employers that CUPE Ontario members are standing up for fairness for the next generation of workers.

Get updates and send web support – For updates on the lockout and more ways to help, visit <http://cupe.on.ca/1281lockout> and the Local's Facebook page, <https://www.facebook.com/lockedoutbyCESAR>
