

CINEMA POLITICA DANFORTH PRESENTS

HIGHWAY OF TEARS

Join us for a free screening of HIGHWAY OF TEARS, which tells the story of missing and murdered indigenous women. The film shows how generational poverty and systemic racism have contributed to this problem, and how First Nations leaders are advocating for change. Followed by a discussion with MP Niki Ashton, the NDP's Aboriginal Affairs Critic; Darlene King, of Native Women's Resource Centre; and film's director Matt Smiley.
Moderated by MP Craig Scott.

Friday, March 27

7:30pm

Metropolitan Community Church

115 Simpson Ave

(1 block north of Gerrard, 1 block west of Logan)

Screening is FREE but donations will be gratefully accepted.

— OUR SPONSORS —

