

2010 Municipal Election Candidate Housing Report Summary

MAYORAL CANDIDATES

D+

Rob Ford

He has not committed to expanding Municipal Licensing & Standards powers, does not support landlord licensing, does not want to build more affordable housing, does not plan on supporting or enhancing existing green initiatives, and makes no mention of implementing the Lesage Inquiry Recommendations. He does have a plan of action for dealing with the Toronto's bed bug epidemic and wants to improve TCHC and ML&S customer service.

A-

Joe Pantalone

He wants to work with the FMTA and Municipal Licensing and Standards to achieve rent freezes/abatements for negligent landlords and have them support tenants at Landlord & Tenant Board hearings. He supports landlord licensing, will work to build more affordable housing and improve existing stock, supports inclusionary zoning, wants to enhance existing and new green initiatives, will work with existing partners and City resources to develop strategies to deal with bed bug epidemic, and will implement the Lesage Inquiry Recommendations.

B

George Smitherman

He has not committed to enhancing or expanding Municipal Licensing and Standards enforcement, is against landlord licensing, and does not support inclusionary zoning. He does have plans for concrete green initiatives; he will invest and allocate resources to a bed bug eradication plan, and will ensure implementation of the Lesage Inquiry Recommendations for Toronto Community Housing.
