

May 15

Personal Support Workers appreciation day

Personal support workers and health care aides deliver personal care to patients and residents in hospitals and long term care facilities across Ontario. With love and compassion these members of the nursing care team provide key support for the sick and the elderly.

Thank them today

Your CUPE Local Union and the Ontario Council of Hospital Unions