

The Ontario Federation of Labour is proud to present

Memories & Movements in African Canadian History

Memories and Movements in African Canadian History will recognize the 100th anniversary of the death of freedom fighter Harriet Tubman and celebrate the Steelpan movement, which was born out of resistance and through its resilience continues to play an active role in the lives of Canadians.

In the main lobby of OFL Building - 15 Gervais Drive, Toronto

Feb 6 & 7

9:00 am to 5:00 pm

Memories and Movements in African Canadian History - Lobby Display

11:30 am to 1:00 pm

Learn to play the Steelpan and share in the history

Do you like music? Want to try something fun? Have you ever dreamed of playing in a steelband? What about lunch and a Steelpan? Do you need bragging rights? Join us in the lobby area for Steelpan instruction.

Feb 7 only

6:00 pm to 7:00 pm

Join in the African History Month reception and celebration taking place in the lobby

Enjoy the rhythm of a live steelband. With host and moderator Itah Sadu (renowned author and owner of a Different Booklist)

7:00 pm to 7:15 pm

From Oil Drum to Steelpan

Demonstration on the making of a Steelpan.

ONTARIO FEDERATION OF LABOUR

www.OFL.ca

cope343