Important Notice

Thank you for considering a registration for our CUPE Ontario Racial Justice, Human Right's and Women's virtual conferences.

This communication is to be clear with locals sending delegates about election processes at this event.

The Racial Justice Committee, Human Right's Committee and the Women's Committee all fall under the CUPE Ontario Constitution. As committees of CUPE Ontario, delegate entitlement for voting is in accordance with Article 4 (d) 1 of our Constitution.

Locals are free to send as many members to the conference as you are able.

For the purposes of voting, in terms of any motions at the events, and for elections of committee members who are elected at large during the conferences, if your local sends more people than their voting entitlement, you will need to designate those who are entitled to vote.
