A public film screening of “We Are Wisconsin” – a moving and inspiring documentary about the workers’ uprising in Wisconsin at the State Capitol over 26 days in February and March of 2011 when a Republican Governor’s bill threatened to wipe out workers rights.

Guest speaker – organizer Melissa Austin, Mobilization Coordinator for the South Central Federation of Labor.

Melissa comes directly from the front lines of the struggle for worker’s rights in Wisconsin. In 2011, she went from stay at home mom to activist to union organizer as a direct result of Scott Walkers attacks on the working people of Wisconsin. Melissa has a diverse background, with experience in law enforcement, the private sector, and non-profit foundations. In addition to a labor and human rights organizer, she is currently a professional photographer, Associate Produce of the film “We are Wisconsin” and mom to three wonderful children.
