

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE

For the factory deaths in Bangladesh?
What has been done?
What do we still need to do?

Public Meeting

Sunday, December 1, 2013; 3 - 5 p.m.

31 Wellesley Street East* (Yonge and Wellesley)

Light refreshments served

* Wheelchair accessible

FREE ADMISSION

More than seven months after the Rana Plaza factory collapse, thousands of victims of the disaster are still waiting for compensation, and justice has not been done. Kalpona Akter, Executive Director of the BCWS will speak on the underlying causes of Rana Plaza and responsibilities of Canadian companies to provide just compensation to the victims and ensure that similar tragedies do not happen in the future.

For more information:

www.maquilasolidarity.org

<http://bit.ly/bangladeshpublicmeeting>
416-532-8584

Speaker: Kalpona Akter
Bangladesh Centre for Worker Solidarity

Sponsored by:

