

Public services fight poverty!

---

Join delegates from CUPE's National convention in a rally to strengthen public services and stop privatization, marking the International Day For The Eradication of Poverty

Public services helped build our country, laying a foundation of dignity and equality. They are key to ending poverty in Canada - and around the world.

Come and add your voice! - Wednesday, Oct. 17
Metro Square (outside Metro Hall, 55 John Street)
12:30 to 1:30 p.m.

Hosted by John Cartwright (Toronto and York Region Labour Council) and featuring:

- *A community-based anti-poverty organizer
- *Joanne Webb (co-Senator, CUPE National and Ontario Aboriginal councils)
- *Sid Ryan (CUPE Ontario President)
- *Paul Moist (CUPE National President)
- *Claude G n reux (CUPE National Secretary-Treasurer)
- *A speaker on the global fight against poverty

Musical performance by Faith Nolan.

cope 343/pv